

*In recognition of the 5th Anniversary of Pope Francis' Encyclical "Laudato Si",
The Archdiocese of Boston Social Justice Ministry presents a virtual Workshop:*

Environmental Justice: Our Common Home - Equity for All

- What is ecological justice?
- How are some people unjustly challenged by environmental harms?
- What can you do to help? Make a commitment.

May 15th 11:00am – 12:30pm

Keynote Speaker Rev. Mariama White-Hammond
Opening remarks by Cardinal Séan O'Malley
Panel of Specialists

Keynote Speaker Rev. Mariama White-Hammond is an advocate for ecological & social justice, youth engagement, and Spirit-filled organizing. She is the founding pastor of New Roots AME Church in Dorchester. Rev. Mariama will explore the environmental dimension of racism and, consider further actions we can take to promote environmental justice and equity for all. Mayor Kim Janey recently appointed Rev. Mariama White-Hammond as the new Chief of Environment, Energy, and Open Space.

Panelists:

Dr. Marcos Luna
Greenroots Chelsea

Haven Vincent-Warner
Youth Activist Our Climate

Fran Ludwig, Boston
Catholic Climate Movement

REGISTER HERE